AT YOUNG BAHEN'S GRAVE.

Beautiful Corinthian Shaft Erected by Friends.

(Special to The Times.)
Richmond, Va., Sept. 4.—On Monday afternoon a beautiful granite monument was erected in Mount Calvary Cemetery to the memory of George A. Bahen, who died last March in Washington from injuries sustained in a game of football played in the National Capital last Thanksgiving Day.

It is a shaft of the Corinthian style seven feet high, and a magnificent specimen of granite work. On each side is the following inscription:

"George D. Bahen, born January 12, 1874, died March 26, 1895, at Washington, D. C., from injuries received on Thanksgiving Day, 1894, in heroically upholding the blue and gray of Georgetown on the field of athletics."

Just below the above is a set of resolutions passed by the students of Georgetown College. Above the inscription is an excellent picture of the deceased athlete burnt in clay and set in the granite. The inscriptions were suggested by Father Richards, the president of Georgetown College.

MGR. SATOLLI'S FUTURE.

Cardinal Gibbons Says He Will Be Recalled to Rome.

Baltimore, Sept. 4.—Cardinal Gibbons, in discussing the elevation of Mr. Satolli to a cardinalate, asserted that the papal delegate would be recalled to Rome. "It is the usual action in such cases," he added, "and Mr. Satolli will probably be recalled within a short time." "What relation will be now bear to the church in America?" "He will be recalled as now." "Will it make no change, then, in his authority or his relations to the church in America?" "None whatever."

"Is allowing him to stay in America after he has been elevated to the cardinalate an unusual thing?"

"Oh, he will be allowed to remain but a short time and then will be recalled to Rome."

"He will certainly be recalled, then?"

"Yes, he will be recalled."

HELD A COMERS.

German-American Veterans Honored by Their Fatherland Friends.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—A comers last night in honor of the German-American veterans was made the occasion for the gathering of many comrades of the late war. The Buzzenhagen Garden was brilliantly illuminated and decorated with flags, and a military band played selections. The president of the military association delivered an oration, and at its conclusion called for cheers for the Emperor. The vice-president toasted the visiting American veterans and their wives, and the band played "Hail Columbia," a number of battle pieces, and patriotic airs. The comers proved a great success.

Knights of Malta.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 4.—The twentieth annual convocation of the Chapter General of the Knights of Malta and St. John convened yesterday in the hall of the House of Representatives and will remain in session until Friday. The delegates were welcomed by Adjutant General Stewart, on behalf of Gov. Hastings, and P. F. McDowan, of New York, responded.

County Treasurer Short.

Paukling, Ohio, Sept. 4.—The tax-payers of this county are much excited and the bondsmen of Michael Finnan, outgoing county treasurer, are mentally troubled. The auditors' books show that Finnan, as county treasurer, should have in county money $74,622, yet he offers in settlement $46,600, a shortage of $28,022.

Fireman Seleccion On Hand.

Fire at the residence of Daniel J. Murphy, No. 1104 Connecticut avenue northwest, about 4:30 o'clock last evening did about $10 damage. Louis Seleccion, a fireman, was pushing the house and noticed smoke issuing from a basement window. He obtained admittance, and going down into the basement, finding a barrel of charcoal burning, extinguished it with a bucket of water.

Paperhangers Report That the Bosses Do Not Object.

Federation of Labor Holds Its Regular Meeting and Transacts Important Business.

The announcement made at the meeting of the Federation of Labor last evening at Plasterers' Hall, corner Fourth and-half street and Pennsylvania avenue, that on Sunday next Rev. Dr. Alexander Kent, pastor of the People's Church, would deliver a lecture at Typographical Temple, at 11 a. m., on the "Incarceration of Eugene V. Debs," the great labor leader, was enthusiastically received.

The meeting was conducted by President McHugh, there being present representatives from thirty-three local labor organizations.

Credentials were presented by five delegates from the Pioneer Laundry Union. The credentials were accepted and the delegates obligated.

Credentials of the delegates from the Steam Fitters' Association were referred to the Plasterers' Association. This course was taken because there is some difference of opinion between these two organizations as to exactly what kind of work belongs to these trades, and it is hoped in this way the associations will settle their differences on the outside without the intervention of the Federation.

The Tailors reported that an amicable settlement will be effected with the firm of Israel & Griffin.

In the case of W. H. Yerkes, reported for violation of contract with the Cornice Workers' Union, the committee reported that it was unable to adjust the matter satisfactorily, and recommended that Mr. Yerkes be placed on the unfair list. The report was adopted.

As no agreement could be reached in the case of Nick Auth, butcher, the investigating committee recommended that the action of District Assembly in placing Mr. Auth on the unfair list be endorsed. The report was adopted.

The representatives from the Musicians' Association reported that they had unanimously endorsed the action of the Federation in placing the Eckington and Soldiers' Home and Bell Line railways on the unfair list, and will impose a penalty of $2 on the members for any violation of the obligation.

The contract committee which called upon Mr. Albaugh with a view to have employ labor employed in the construction of his new theater were informed that he had nothing whatever to do with the matter, and referred the committee to the architect in charge. The matter was referred back to the committee with instructions to take further action. It is reported that there is a non-union gang at work on the building.

The report that men from the Cranford Paving Company were employed in the cement work at the power house was referred to the contract committee for investigation.

The members of the Paperhangers' Protective Association assembled in the labor committee rooms in The Times building last night to transact the routine business and to take action in regard to the new price list prepared by the association and accepted yesterday morning by the stores.

Herefore the association has been working by the week for stipulated salaries, thus putting good and poor workmen on the same footing. Recently, however, the association came to the conclusion that this method was unfair to a large number of mechanics who were able to accomplish a great deal more than those of their less expert fellows, and it was decided to arrange a price list for piece work, to be submitted to the stores. The price list was accordingly prepared and accepted by the stores yesterday morning without any hesitation.

President W. J. Johnson and Acting Secretary H. J. Wells were present at the meeting last night and addressed the assembly. A vote of thanks was tendered The Times for the use of its hall.

President Johnson stated that the price list for piecework was accepted without any conflict with the stores, and at no time has a strike been considered. The new schedule will have the effect of making all the paperhangers work by the piece in the future, thus enabling the superior workmen to stand on their merits and receive adequate compensation for their labor.

The main appearance and the general bearing of the thousands of parades on Labor Day is having a good effect here, and the result will be several new labor organizations. The latest in this line was the proposition made last night to organize the dairy lunchroom clerks into an assembly of Knights of Labor or protective union. Steps may be taken in this matter at once.

HARDIN DENIES IT.

Says He Never Threatened Physical Harm to His Opponent.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 4.—Gen. Hardin, Democratic candidate for Governor, said last night that he intended to speak at all the places set for the joint debates, and that either himself or some other Democrat would follow Col. Bradley all over the State.

"Why did Bradley withdraw from the debates," he was asked.

"I have never been able to find out," was the answer.

"Did you not call Bradley a liar from the stump on two occasions?"

"I did not; I said his statements were false."

"Did you not threaten to attack Bradley physically?"

"Bradley knows better than that. He knows that there was no danger of my jumping on him," replied Hardin like a flash.

STREET CAR MAIL SERVICE.

Columbia Heights Citizens Are Pushing the Project.

The Columbia Heights Citizens' Association held a meeting last night at St. Stephen's Parish Hall. The special committee on reduction of baggage rates made a report through James K. Eppley, in which it was stated that one company had consented to deliver baggage and parcels within the territory lying between Florida avenue and Seventeenth street northwest, on and after September 1, at the rate of 25 cents per trip.

The alarm box committee reported that the following new fire alarm boxes had been distributed in Mount Pleasant: No. 83, Superior and Ontario streets; 84, Erie and Mesmore; 85, Fifteenth and Chapin; 86, Fourteenth and Boney; 812, Fifteenth and Kenesaw; 813, Sixteenth and Howard; 814, engine-house No. 11; 815, Thirteenth and Whitney; 821, Seventh and Whitney; 823, Seventh and Steuben; 825, Seventh and Irving.

With reference to the subject of street car mail service, Dr. John K. Gishmore reported that a letter had been received from Postmaster Willott stating that the matter would receive favorable consideration. The further limits of the association were extended to Spring road on the north, Rock Creek Church road on the east, Fifteenth street on the west, and White and Wisconsin street on the south, including Holmead Manor.

CALL BOX ORDER DISOBEYED

Messenger Boys Are Again Sent to the Disreputable Houses.

Commissioners Will Institute an Investigation and Locate the Places Where They Have Been Put.

Little messenger boys are again allowed to enter the infamous precincts south of Pennsylvania avenue. Some time ago The Morning Times exposed the messenger call box system in the Division and pictured the scenes which the boys were compelled to witness, besides giving instances where the lads had been tendered strong drink by degraded mankind and womanhood.

Commissioner Ross, when spoken to about the restoration of the boxes and the alleged permission the companies had received, stated with emphasis that he had not been a party to such a proceeding, and promised to have the matter investigated.

In the meantime, however, the boxes have been put back in nearly all the houses, and the police say they have issued orders that the messenger boys, when called to the resorts, must not be allowed to enter the structures, but remain at the front door until the message is delivered to them.

Several messenger boys were interviewed last night by The Times. The sentiments of the lads can be expressed by the utterance of a ten-year-old tot in blue clothes and brass buttons.

"Yes," he said, "the boxes is nearly all back, and we have to make many runs every night. That is all 'guff' about us not being allowed to go in the house. Some of the women keep us out and make us stand at the front door, but most of 'em say, 'Come in, come in, and wait for the message.'"

Several of the boys described the tactics the agents of the companies had resorted to in replacing the boxes. They carried to them in satchels, two boxes in each package, and after putting up one of them in the house, the agent brought the other out in his hand to make it appear that he was removing a call box from the house instead of putting one in.

It was stated by the keeper of several houses along C street last night, that while the boxes had been removed, when The Times was exposing the system, they were now making arrangements to have them replaced.

S. P. House, general manager of the Rapid Transit Company, said to-day that when The Times first began its crusade a number of boxes were removed from disreputable houses. The boys have always been instructed to remain at the door of the houses; under no circumstances to go inside, and if the answer is not brought to them, then the service was to be returned to the office.

"This is all I have to say on the subject," he added.

R. G. Callum, general manager of the Mutual District Messenger Company, said emphatically:

"I have nothing to say."

The Postal Telegraph people say they are putting no boxes in the houses. None have been placed since the matter was first agitated by The Times.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Official Bulletin Show Grain to Have Yielded Well.

The report of crop conditions for the week ended yesterday indicates a general improvement in corn, although in some portions of Wisconsin and South Dakota there has been some injury from frost.

Throughout the southern portions of the cotton region cotton picking is general and next week will begin in the northern portions. The crop has improved in North Carolina.

There has been considerable tobacco cut and housed under favorable conditions during the week. In Maryland and Virginia tobacco has suffered much from drought.

According to the monthly meteorological summary, just issued by the Weather Bureau, the highest temperature was 96, on August 10. The lowest was 54, on August 1. The greatest daily range of temperature occurred August 26, when the variation was 29 degrees. The least variation for one day was August 17, when the change was only 10 degrees. The mean temperature was 77 degrees, 3 degrees higher than for the same month last year, and 2 degrees more than for 1893.

LINGER AT OLD BERKELEY

Approaching Autumn Only Adds to the Resort's Gaiety.

Many Washingtonians There—Pretty Parties and Living Pictures Among the Week's Doings.

(Special to The Times.)

Berkeley Springs, W. Va., Sept. 4.—The season shows no signs of being on the wane at Berkeley. In fact, to many persons September and October are the loveliest of all months in the Virginia mountains.

One of the most brilliant affairs that have ever taken place here was the series of "Living Pictures" presented at "The Castle," the residence of Mrs. S. S. Suits of Washington, on Saturday evening. The entertainment was gotten up by Mrs. Suits and Mrs. Rockhill, the tableaux being selected and arranged by Mr. John McKim and Miss Melvina of Baltimore. The programme was as follows: "Japanese Child," Miss Louisa Suits, Washington, and Master Basil Pendleton, Berkeley; "In My Studio," Miss Ellen George, Baltimore; duet, violin and piano, Mr. Anton Kaspar and Mrs. Vickery, Baltimore; "Reaper," Miss Julia Sample, Washington; song, Miss Adler, Baltimore; "Springtime of Love," Miss Brown, Pittsburgh, and Mr. Samuel Peters, Philadelphia; "Yes or No," Miss Mary Vickery, Baltimore; piano solo, Mrs. Vickery; "Trade Is Dull," Mr. Pelham Suits, Washington; "Nydia," Miss Pendleton, Washington; duet, piano, Mrs. Vickery and Mrs. Kaspar; "La Marquise," one of the prettiest of the representations, Mrs. C. M. Ray, Washington; "Gypsy Cases," Miss Young, New York; "Topsy," Miss Dawson, Washington; "Raydare," Miss Rockhill, Washington; duet, violin and piano, Mrs. Vickery and Mr. Kaspar; "A Cup of Tea," Miss Orne, New York.

"The Chocolate Girl," Miss Esther Jackson, Baltimore; "Long," Miss Adler; "From the Flower Market," Miss Betty Sample, Washington, and Miss Agnes Jackson, Baltimore; "Charlotte Corday," Mrs. Harry Ransom, of Baltimore; "The First Cigar," Master Thomas Vickery, Baltimore; "Judith with Head of Holofernes," pronounced the finest of all, Miss McSwain, of Philadelphia; George, Baltimore, and Miss Rockhill, Washington.

The guests were seated in the great stone entrance hall of the castle, at one end of which was erected the handsomely draped stage.

Among the children the prettiest event of the season was the birthday party given by little Miss Douglas Wigg, daughter of Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Frederick Wigg on Saturday afternoon. After some time spent in playing games and dancing the young guests were ushered in procession into the dining room, where stood the table beautifully decorated with pink wax lights and flowers and laid down with all the good things children love.

Those present were Misses Margaret, Emily, and Josephine Packard, Frances Benson, Annie Ransom, Baltimore; Daisy Rockhill, Beth Wise, Mildred Duval, Ralph Duval, Robert Craig, Allen Craig, Louisa Suits, Washington; Frances Haglund, Gertrude Houlter, Pittsburgh, and Boyd Pendleton, Berkeley.

On Monday afternoon little Miss Beth Wigg gave a small card party among the players being Edith Houseman, Frances Hazlett, Margaret, Emily, and Josephine Packard, Gertrude Houlter, Daisy Rockhill, Mildred and Ralph Duval.

Mrs. C. B. Johnson has returned to Washington. Mrs. Johnson, it will be remembered, was formerly Miss Lottie Boteler, a daughter of the late Senator Alexander Boteler, of West Virginia.

Mr. Cary Johnson, of Washington, is visiting Mr. Fred. W. at his cottage.

John L. Mills, Jr., has been spending the past few days at Berkeley.

Right Rev. Bishop Wilmer and Mrs. Wilmer, of Alabama, are visiting Judge and Mrs. Josiah Dent, of Washington, at their beautiful summer home, "The Pines."

Among the prettiest and most attractive young matrons at the Berkeley Springs Hotel this season is Mrs. Andrew Jackson Huntington, W. Va.

Among recent arrivals are the following from Washington: Mrs. E. Shoemaker, Miss Shoemaker, W. L. McPherson, Mrs. L. Irey, Mr. Thomas Harrison, Miss Harrison, Mrs. J. P. Chapman, N. H. Darton, A. R. Mullover, Mrs. M. W. Patton, Julius Lansburg and J. P. Evans.

KENSINGTON NOTES.

Mrs. George Nash and daughters, Alice and Lily, of Washington, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Nash.

Miss Marie Stubbs, of Wheaton, will leave Saturday for the Academy of Visitation, in Frederick, Md.

Mrs. Costello, of Washington, who is visiting Mrs. Quinter, of Kensington Heights, will leave for the West at an early date.

The Misses Hardy, of Kensington Heights, have as their guest Miss Mary Holmead, of Holmead Manor.

Mr. Z. D. Gunion, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Adams, and Miss Hattie Haine, of Washington, have been visiting Mayor and Mrs. R. B. Detrick.

Miss Emma L. Flier, of Washington, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Flier.

Mrs. J. Hilton, of Washington, has returned home after a visit of a few days to Mrs. James A. Windom.

Mr. Gerald Griffin, of Washington, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy.

Mr. Willie Fling, of Washington, is visiting his uncle, Mr. John Truck.

Mr. Howard Batchelder, of Washington, has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, of Washington, have been visiting the Messrs. Brown.

The choir of the Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church has been reorganized, with the following members: Sopranos, Mrs. A. H. Kinneer, Misses Julia Langille, Minnie Hutchinson, Letitia Langille, Mattie Martin, and Nellie Key; altos, Mrs. Alphonso Hart and Miss Birdie Russell; basses, Mr. William M. Terrell and Mr. Preston Ray, and tenors, Prof. J. H. Langille and Mr. Marion Dorian.

Mrs. Siler, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. Augustus Burgdorf.

Miss Cornelia Warfield, of Gaithersburg, is the guest of the Messrs. Perry.

Cloudless Skies Made the Eclipse a Beautiful Sight.

Astronomers at the Observatory Secured Some Rare Observations of Occulted Stars.

The total eclipse of the moon last night was observed under the most favorable conditions. The sky was without a cloud for three hours and fifty-four minutes, during which the phenomenon was being developed. In this respect it was an infinitely superior and more beautiful exhibition than the eclipse which occurred earlier in the year.

In the latter eclipse the shadow first appeared on the lower limb of the moon, while last night the shadow began to creep over the face of our satellite from a point on the upper left of the rim.

The programme was carried out precisely as the astronomers had predicted. The entrance of the moon into the penumbra, so far as the naked eye was concerned, had to be taken for granted, but at 11 p. m., the time fixed for the plunge into the shadow, that incident was distinctly observable.

From that time until six minutes after midnight the moon went through all the phases which are ordinarily observed from the full to the new. When it was about half immersed in the shadow a little star of about the third magnitude began to twinkle about a diameter of the moon east of that body, and soon afterwards four stars of the same magnitude appeared to the east. The moon was therefore set in a starry triangle, it being very near the apex, making an unusually lovely celestial picture.

Just before the total extinguishment of the light a brilliant segment remained, which slowly flickered until the shadow completely veiled the wonder-worker.

The copper color of the moon immersed in the shadow was usually decided in tint.

These eclipses are taken advantage of by astronomers to note the occultations of the stars. By a comparison of observations between stations, where eclipses are noted, it is easy to determine the exact path of these occulted stars across the hidden side of the moon, and from these paths they can measure with great accuracy the diameter of the moon. They also determine the longitude of stars.

It was for the former purpose especially that the observations by the photographic transit were made last night at the naval observatory. There were but few stars and these telescopic in the line of the moon's orbit.

The copper color is caused by the light of the sun refracted into the earth's atmosphere and in that mild quality revealing the face of the moon.

The cause of eclipses of the moon, as was recently explained in The Times, is the earth coming between the moon and the sun when the moon is in the plane of the earth's orbit. Such an eclipse can only occur at full moon.

For amateurs in astronomy, either with the naked eye or the camera, last night was one out of ten thousand.

The eclipse was over at 2:54 o'clock this morning, all the phases occupying three hours and fifty-four minutes.

BLUE AND GRAY DAY.

Federal and Confederate Veterans Invited to Atlanta September 21.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 4.—The executive committee of the Cotton States and International Exposition has adopted a resolution inviting the veterans of the Federal and Confederate armies to come here on blue and gray day, September 21. It is expected to be one of the greatest days on the exposition calendar.

The estimate for attendance on that day reaches 100,000, as there will be 100,000 of the G. A. R. men alone in Chattanooga on the 19th and 20th, and it is expected that fully one-half of the crowd there will come to Atlanta on Blue and Gray day, on the 21st.

SUCCESSFUL AT LAST.

Made Two Efforts at Suicide Before He Died.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—Edward Andrea, the St. Louis engraver who attempted to commit suicide by jumping from a ferryboat into the Delaware River on Friday night, died last night in the Cooper Hospital, Camden.

After being rescued from the river Andrea was locked up in the Camden city hall. He made a rope out of his underclothing and hanged himself yesterday afternoon. When cut down life was almost extinct.

French Cannon Given Away.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—The Post says that Emperor William has presented the French cannon captured in the war of 1870-71 to Gen. Schellendorf, accompanied by a gracious letter of recognition of the great services rendered by him in maintaining the high standard of efficiency of the army and its state of preparation for war.
